

Candles and Bottle Cutting

Candles are potentially dangerous. If you make holders for them, I suggest you print a warning along the lines of the one below and distribute with the candle.

I always use either a glass or metal cup to hold the tea light as there have been instances of the foil holder leaking wax which has then ignited and set the furniture the candle was on alight.

- COMPLETE GLASS BOTTLE CUTTING KIT - Aside from the glass bottle cutter tool itself, Ephrem's bottle cutter kit includes a bottle scribing fixture, silicon carbide grit, 100 grit size sanding cloth and how-to instructions
- FOR BEGINNERS & EXPERIENCED CRAFTERS - This jar glass cutter for crafts comes with how-to instruction and a separate pamphlet that shows an extensive collection of creative bottle cutting projects
- DURABLE AND STURDY, PROUDLY MADE IN USA - Ephrem's Original Bottle Cutter Kit is made from steel that is much thicker than other models out in the market, which means ours is much more sturdy and can last for the long run
- FLEXIBLE, WIDE BACKSTOP - It allows you to adjust the height of the cutter to create a score line at different lengths of the bottle and helps cut bottles, jars or jugs of larger diameter. Keep the bottle vertical to the backstop to get a perfect score line
- CREATIVE AND ECONOMICAL - Make beautiful crafts out of old bottles and jars and unleash your creativity! This cutter is a perfect addition to your recycling tools. Cheaper but more powerful and reliable than other cutters machine
